

Resources & Support Services

Military Resource:

Not everyone lives close to a military base or has active-duty families in their community. The resources below provide various ways to support the Quality-of-Life needs of active, reserve, guard, and transitioning military service members and their families.

If you are viewing this list electronically, the underlined words are clickable links:

Florida Military Base Overview: installations.militaryonesource.mil/state/fl

Military OneSource Causality Assistance:

https://www.militaryonesource.mil/casualty assistance/survivor-support/

Florida National Guard: fl.ng.mil/about

National Guard Family Program: www.militaryonesource.mil/resources/millife-guides/national guard-family-program/

Click here to learn more about “Be the One” or click the link below to watch the video: Be The One Video

FaceBook Groups:

Most military installations have Facebook pages, which are too numerous to list here. Do a search on Facebook for the installation that is nearest to your Unit and follow their page to stay abreast of activities, events and opportunities to support the military and their families. Below are your Department and National ALA Facebook Group pages for National Security.

National Security Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/915563745139663>

ALAFL National Security Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/888644168305953>